BLAINE AND FISHER.

WHAT IS SAID ABOUT THEIR LETTERS.

A TRIBUTE TO THE REPUBLICAN CANDIDATE'S HONESTY AND INTEGRITY.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] BOSTON, Sept. 16 .- The desperate attempt of the Democrats to make a sensation out of the Blaine Fisher letters has, so far as New-England is concerned, proved an absolute failure. The absurd and misleading head lines deceived nobody who took the trouble to read the letters. Henry Cabot Lodge expressed the general sentiment in regard to the letters. He said: "These letters are of no sort of consequence. They amount to nothing as against Mr. Blaine, and I do not believe that they will change a single vote. They are not worth talking

A. W. Beard says that the letters show that Mr. Blaine was not a rich man, and that he had been overreached by the managers of the falling enterprise in which he had embarked and that he was honestly trying to get his money back, while Fisher was trying to shift the responsibility and avoid payment. Fisher afterward testified that his assumptions as to Mr. Blaine's profits were groundless. Mr. Blaine said further that if the Democrats had any more such campaign material it would be worth while for the Republicans to encourage them to give it to the public. Another prominent Re-publican said: "This is the worst boomerang the Democrats and their allies have yet given out. These letters furnish corroborative evidence of Mr. Blaine's honesty and integrity in the transactions in question. That is clearly shown in his confidential note to Fisher, accompanying the draft of a letter which he wished him to sign. In that Mr. Blaine said : 'The letter is strictly true, is honorable to you and to me, and will stop the mouths o slanderers.' Any man of sense would know that Mr. Blaine would not make such a statement in a confidential note to Fisher, unless it was strictly

Mr. Buttrick, the Prohibition leader, said that the publication would not change a single vote or cause one Republican to be willing to confide the National Government to the shot-gun minority of the South

An Independent Republican leader said to-day that a good deal of money had been wasted in securing the letters for publication. Another man said that the letters show beyond question that Mr. Blaine is a good, clear business man, and Fisher mean sneak, and that Mr. Blaine was deceived in regard to the property and prospects of the road and in protecting his friends from the consequenlosses involved himself in pecuniary embarrass ments which caused him suffering for years after an obligation by giving these confidential business letters to the public he ought to have given a letter written by hmi to Mr. Blaine soliciting a foreign appointment which he failed to secure.

The Herald, one of the Independent organs here reports a Butler Democrat as saying that since the publication of this new batch of letters he had met ten men who were intending to vote for Cleveland who would now east their ballots for Mr. Blaine That no doubt correctly explains the effect of the

A Salem merchant says that a Democrat has written him from Ohio that the Democrats there are making a great mistake in serving up Mulligan letters three times a day, and that every fresh issue means more votes for Blaine. He fears that the re sult will be the same as in Maine. There the Repubsult will be the same as in Maine. There the Republican vote increased the most in the places where the Independents conducted their Mulligan canvass. "I wonder," added this man, "why the Democrats do not explain Cleveland's attitude on the tariff, and tell us how it was that he charged for 863 days services as sheriff in one year, and how he came to charge $150 more than his predecessors for hanging a man when he pulled the lever himself, and therefore did not pay for help. Then why don't he explain his failure to act on the grave charges against blereff Dayadson, and how it comes that a man con-fore did not pay for help. Then why don't he explain his failure to act on the grave charges against. Sheriff Davidson, and how it comes that a man condemned by a Grand Jury as dishonest, such as Hubert O. Thompson, is allowed to manage his can vass. These things are more pertinent than these so-called Mulligan letters."

Professor Perry is out with another broadside against the tariff. He says he is prepared to manitain any shere that no protective tariff was ever laid in this country, except at the instance and under the pressure of selfish and greedy men, whose only motive and sole design was to benefit themselves at the expense of their countrymen, Mr. Perry does not withdraw his commendation of Mr. Cleveland as a free trader, and he believes so much in the Democratic candidate that he has offered his services on the stump.

The Republican canvass in Massachusetts is to be an energetic one. The list of speakers embraces 152 names. Charman Lodge says that there is not the least room for doubt of a great Republican victory in New-England.

WHAT MULLIGAN SAID FIVE YEARS AGO. ME DECLARES POSITIVELY THAT ME, BLAINE WAS

NEVER BRIBED OR CORRUPTED. Boston, Sept. 16 .- A letter written by Paul West, a lawyer of Boston, is published by The Journal giving a conversation had with Mr. Mulligan in 1879 in relation to Mr. Blaine. Mr. West was junior counsel to Sohier & Welch and assisted in the preparation and trial of the case of Adams against the estate of Seth Julius Adams against the estate of Seth Adams. In this case James Mulligan was examined as the former bookkeeper of Seth Adams, and Mr. West became acquainted with him. Mr. West was a Grant man, but his friend, E. B. Callender, was strong for Blaine, and many warm discussions occurred between them. Mr. West told his friend that knowing Mulligan he would ask him his opinion of Blaine. Mr. West's letter continues as follows:

This was in 1879. I said to Mr. Mulligan that as he knew all about the so-called "Mulligan letters" I wanted his opinion on Mr. Blaine.

"Well," said Mr. Mulligan, "in what respect I".
I replied: "In the first place, do you consider Mr. Blaine a corrupt man I".

"No," answered Mr. Mulligan, "Do you, Mr. Mulligan, believe he ever sold his vote while in Congress for money!".

"No," said Mr. Mulligan, "I would not say that he did.".

No. said Mr. Mulligan, "I would not say that he "Do you believe that Mr. Blaine when Speaker in any way favored legislation that did not commend itself on its merits to his convictions?" "No., said Mr. Mulligan.

"Well then," I asked, "what does it all amount to t" "Mr. Mulligan replied: "It just amounts to this; that Mr. Blaine is a very able man and that while he was in Congress he saw measures going through in which he took an interest and made some mone; for himself, but as for saying he was ever bried or corrupted I would not say that."

"That is," I queried, "he improved his opportunities to use the knowledge he got to make good investments and was fortunate in them."

"That is about all I would say about it," said Man.

That is about all I would say about it," said Mulli Fan.

Mr. Callender also writes a note saying that he ha read Mr. West's letter and that the conversation as given with Mulligan is substantially the same as reported t

TO START FOR BOSTON TO-DAY-EFFECTS OF THE

MAINE ELECTION. [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNF.] Augusta, Sept. 16 .- Mr. Blaine will leave Augusta at 4 p. m. to-morrow and will reach Boston at 9:30 p. m. He will remain there over night and proceed to Worcester the next day. It is the present intention to start from Worcester for New York at 6 p. m. on Thurs day. Senator Hale and J. H. Manley will accompany Blaine to New-York. All the members of Congress from this State will take part in the Ohio canvass. Mr. Boutelle speaks to-night at Cheisea, Mass. Mr. Milliken, who represents Mr. Blaine's old district, has the distinction of carrying it this year by 6,310 majority, the largest given to any member from this State. Mr. Dingley has 5,811 majority, Mr. Boutelle 5,579, and Mr. Reed 1,080. Mr. Milliken and Mr. Dingley ran ahead of the vote for Governor in their Dis tricts. In many places in this State the crats are heaping abuse upon the Irish Americans who left the party to support Mr. Blaine. this city great indignation has been caused among the Catholies by the foul aspersions east by Democratic pa-pers upon the Rev. Father Murphy, because he declared for Mr. Blaine. The Democratic newspapers, including The New-York Herald, charged Father Murphy among other things with voting the Republican ticket because he had a brother in the Portland Custom House. It turns out that Father Murphy did not vote at all last week, though he will vote for Mr. Blaine, and that he has only one brother Rving, who is a priest, and was never in the public service. This is a sample of the indecent treatment Irishmen are receiving at the hands of the baffled Democrats.

MR. BLAINE'S VISIT.

PREPARATIONS TO RECEIVE HIM-A GENERAL DE-SIRE TO HEAR HIM SPEAK. James G. Blaine and his movements were the subjects of constant conversation at the headquarters of the Republican National Committee yesterday. Four score prominent Republican politicians assailed the committee with questions respecting the hour of Mr. Blaine's arrival, and whether or not a grand reception by Republican clubs would be acceptable to him. General Jardine, the State commandant of the War Veterans, proposed that there should be a parade of that organization. With other Blaine and Logan clubs, from New-York and Brooklyn, he said, the organization could muster

10,000 men. He thought also that Mr. Blaine should be serenaded. The people he knew would like to hear a speech from Mr. Blaine. Letters were also re ceived by the committee from Republican leaders living on the railroad routes to be traversed by Mr. Blaine on his proposed journey, suggesting that he make speeches and accept a reception at their resaid afterward that if Mr. Blaine accepted all these invitations he would be two weeks in making the ourney from Worcester to New-York.

to examine the correspondence relative to Mr. Blaine's journey. The letters received on the subject will be submitted to him on his arrival. It is expected that Mr. Blaine will be here on Friday. He will attend the fair at Worcester, Mass, tomorrow. The Executive Committee will also determine the nature of the reception to be given to Mr. Blaine—whether there shall be a gerat parade of the Republican clubs in his honor now, or later when he returns from Ohio. Mr. Blaine, it is said, has not adopted any plan as yet for his movements beyond this city. It is not probable that he will at this time make a tour through this State, although this is greatly desired by the Republican State Committee. Upon his return from Ohio, however, it is said, receptions of a grand nature will be given him. to examine the correspondence relative to Mr.

TIN DISCOVERED IN WEST VIRGINIA.

IBY TRINGRAPH TO THE TRIBUTELL CINCINNATI, Sept. 16 .- A discovery of tin in Mason and Cabell counties, West Virginia, is attracting much attention. The discovery was made upon a tract of land owned owned by B. N. Dobbins. When the mineral was first found it was supposed to be silver, but after an assay it was pronounced to be tin, and of fine quality. It it is estimated that the velus are sufficiently rich to sup-ply a dozen furnaces for hundreds of years. The owners of the land expect to begin operations on a large scale at once. Crucibles and iron retorts have been ordered from

THE DEMOCRATS UNEASY AND THE REPUBLICANS MORE THAN HOPEFUL.

IBY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.1 Washington, Sept. 16 .- The Democratic enders and newspapers are loud in their assertions that West Virginia is all right." Secretary Post, of the Conral Goff's District and elect a solid Democratic delegations, indications are not wanting that the Democratic managers are at heart uneasy respecting the prospects in that State. Schafor Gorman was in Washington to-day and it is understood that one of the chief subjects discussed at a conference to-night between him and Secretary Post was the critical situation in the IVth West Virginia district, which is now represented by Congress-man Gibson, who, it appears, has come to Washington to again beg for help. It is said he strongly impressed upon Messrs. Gorman and Pest the necessity of immediate and energetic efforts if they hope to retain the district. What direction such efforts will take is not known, but it is thought that several strong Democratic speakers will be sent into the district at an early day. Mr. Gibson was an ardent supporter of the early day. Mr. Gibson was an ardent supporter of the Morrison bill, and that fact is urged with great force against his candidacy. In 1882 his plurality was less than 1,309, while he lacked 1,000 votes of a majority. This year there is no third candidate in the field.

As for the Wheeling District, now represented by General Goff, who is a candidate for rejection, Secretary McPherson expresses confidence that it will be carried by the Republicans and by a larger majority than in 1882. A well-informed West Virginia Republican, who has carefully studied the situation, expresses the opinion that the October election will show such Republican gains as to insure the triamph of Biaine and Logan in West Virginia in November.

JUDGE KELLEY SCORES CARL SCHURZ. ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING IN PITTSBURG-COMPARI SONS OF MONEY VALUES.

INT TELEGRAPH TO THE TAISUES. PITTSBURG, Sept. 16 .- The Republican campaign in this city was opened this evening with a large meeting at Lafayette Hall. W. D. Kelley and General Powell Clayton, of Arkansas, were the principal speakers. They were escorted from their hotel to the had, at once recognized and he received an evation. John H. Rickettson, presided over the meeting. When Judge Kelley was introduced the andience went wild. When he succeeded in making himself heard he said that he had come to close his career as a political speaker. He intended that his speeches made two years ago should be his last, but the importance of the present campaign was so great that he felt his duty to put aside his preferences. He said:

The question to be settled by this campaign is whether The question to be settled by this campaign is whether Republican institutions are of more value to the workingmen of the land than are those of the monarchies of Europe. The laboring man of Europe cannot carn enough to give him adequate food to develop his body to meet the requirements of military rules. During my vizit to Europe I investigated the relative purchasing power of money. I found that in all the principal necessaries of food and clothing an English shilling would buy no more in England than in American of the same value would in the United States; that broadcloth is cheaper in England than in this country; that the chothes worn by American working and business men are cheaper and of better quality in the United States. The reason for this is that in the early days of the Republican party
